Joining the Young CPAs would be a perfect fit for you!

Who doesn't like golf tournaments, chili cook-offs, fund-raisers, and giving back to the community? Well if this sounds like something you'd be interested in, it's time to get involved with the Young CPA Board. The Young CPA Board represents a growing percentage of the ASCPA membership, CPAs under 35 years of age. We are a division of the ASCPAs Board of Directors. Every 2 years two Young CPA Board members are chosen to represent the Young CPAs on the ASCPA Board of Directors. This could be you! We're working hard to ensure the concerns and ideas of Young CPAs are met by the ASCPA, so let us work for you.

Task Forces:

1. Young CPA Conferences / Client Development Skills
2. Recruiting the "Best & Brightest" into the Accounting Profession
3. Work/Life Issues
4. Annual Charity Golf Tournament

ASCPAs Young CPA Board

Still not convinced? Listen to what one of our Young CPA Board members said about joining the society. "When I first joined the Young CPA Board, I was a little hesitant, but it has been a great experience. I have enjoyed meeting the staff at the ASCPA, networking with other young CPAs, and becoming more involved in our state society." Chasity Sweatmon
